General Mohammad Zia-ul-Haq,
President of Pakistan,
President House
Rawalpindi.

Excellency,

Assalamu Alaikum wa Rahmatullah wa Barakatahu,

We in the Islamic Council have been reading with pride and pleasure about your courageous efforts for the implementation of the Shariah in Pakistan. We were especially happy about the recently promulgated Shariah Ordinance and issued a press statement welcoming it and calling upon all those who stand for Islam - governments, organisations and individuals - to support your efforts. The statement was distributed world-wide.

We are glad that significant progress has been made in some areas and hope that it won't be long before Shariah is fully in place in Pakistan. May Allah bless and crown your efforts with complete success.

You will recall that in 1980 you had very kindly issued me and my wife diplomatic passports. They proved
